

IN BRIEF

August 15, 2010

PHHS schedules registration

Port Huron High School is planning its 2010-2011 registration for grades 9 through 12 during the next two weeks. Juniors and seniors are invited to register at the high school from 8 a.m. until noon Thursday. Sophomores and seniors may register from 8 a.m. until noon Friday. Freshmen may register from 8 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Sept. 2.

Undergarments to go on display

The St. Clair Historical Commission will present speaker Kim Parr at 7 p.m. Thursday at the St. Clair Historical Museum, 308 S. Fourth Street in St. Clair. Parr will display and talk about Victorian undergarments. A $5 donation is suggested for the show, which will include refreshments.

Bus trip planned to education event

Parents, teachers and advocates of early childhood programs and services are invited to the Sandbox Party Convention from 1-4 p.m. Aug. 26 at East Lansing's Breslin Student Event Center. Attendees may share thoughts and ideas about early childhood education and care with state legislators and candidates seeking office this fall. A bus will depart from the St. Clair County Regional Educational Service Agency at 8 a.m. that day and will bring participants back to RESA after the convention ends at 4 p.m. Lunch and dinner will be provided. For more information, contact Nora Arnold at (810) 455-4390.

MDOT to conduct 'walkability' audits

The Michigan Department of Transportation plans a series of "walkability" audits in 17 communities statewide, designed to evaluate walking conditions and discuss design-improvement ideas. None of the communities is in the Port Huron region. The audits are designed to help city engineers, planners, officials and residents realize the benefits of providing a safe and attractive environment for walking. Dan Burden, of the Walkable and Livable

Communities Institute, will conduct the audits Aug. 16-27. There is no charge to participants. A list of audits and contact information is available at www.tinyurl.com/26fbmke.
