EAST LANSING, Mich. (WXYZ) - Thousands of people came together in East Lansing for the state's first nonpolitical, political style convention.

The Sandbox Party Convention is aimed at representing the interests of Michigan's young people and was formed to bring core issues to this year's election season.

The convention was held at the Breslin Student Events Center, on the Michigan State University Campus.

Gubernatorial candidates – Republican Rick Snyder and Democrat Virg Bernero addressed the convention.
